

PROPERTY & BUSINESS INVESTMENT in 2010 East Midlands

Thank You To Everyone Who Stopped By To Say Hello

Alpha Construction had an excellent day at the Derby Property and Business Investment Show and we hope that everyone found it as useful as we did.

This was a special show for Alpha as we chose this event to launch our new brand image. We were very happy with the new look and we received great feedback from everyone who came by the stand.

We would like to thank you all for entering your business cards for the Champagne draw, sorry if we didn't get a chance to chat but please do not hesitate to get in contact, we would be delighted to hear from you. Hopefully we will see everyone again at future events.

And The Winner Is:

Ian Griffiths
Of Summers Inman

Congratulations to Ian, his name was drawn out by our Managing Director, who would like to thank everyone who dropped by and handed in their business card.
