

PROPERTY & BUSINESS INVESTMENT in 2009 East Midlands

Thank You To Everyone Who Stopped By To Say Hello

Alpha Construction had a brilliant day at the East Midlands Property and Business Investment Show and we hope that everyone found it as useful as we did.

With so many people dropping by our stand to chat, the show was a huge success for ourselves making many invaluable contacts which we hope to strengthen over time.

We would like to thank you all for dropping off your business cards for the Champagne draw, sorry if we didn't get a chance to chat but please do not hesitate to get in contact, we would be delighted to hear from you. Hopefully we will see everyone again at future events.

And The Winner Is:

Clive Williams

Congratulations to Clive, his name was drawn out by our Managing Director, who would like to thank everyone who dropped by and handed in their business card.
