

We are pleased to announce that Alpha Construction Ltd will be launching their re-branded image on May 11th 2010 at the Derby Property and Business Investments show at Pride Park.

The new brand demonstrates how the company is prepared to move with the times. The old Alpha logo had been with us for many years and the launch of the new image marks a major milestone in the company's development.

The Derby Show is an ideal venue for us to launch the new brand and we hope you can join us to celebrate the occasion.
